NATIONAL POLITICS INVOLVED.

The State Demecracy to Shew that It is in Line with the Administration.

Senator David B. Hill's presence at Democratic State Headquarters to-day was the occasion of a great scurrying around among the headquarters staff, and many rumor were current concerning what was going to happen be-fore the day was over. Mr. Hill at once took hold of the campaign steering-gear, and assumed his accustomed reserve concerning his It was, however, learned from a source which has hitherto been reliable, that the long hoped for indorsement of Mr. Hill by President Cleveland was about The conditions, however, under which the head of the administration would indorse the Gubernatorial candidate were, it was said, as follows:

Senator Charles R. Faulkner must straighten out the Congressional nom-inations muddle in such a manner as to show conclusively that the State party in line with National politics.

Then President Cleveland, according to the same authority, will not only come out openly for Hill, but will even so far as to make a speech while in go so far as to make a ble subgize Sen-this city, in which he will eulogize Senator Hill and plead for his support by

of Cayuga County.

George Waiton Green, who, yesterday afternoon, made the notification speech when Mr. Strong was formally offered the Mayoralty nomination, came in with Francis M. Scott about 10.30 o'clock.

It was evident from the reticence of all Mr. Hill's callers after they had left his presence that the injunction of slience had been laid upon them.

The probability of a meeting between Senator Hill and President Cleveland when the latter arrives in town this afternoon was discussed at headquarters, but the sphinx-like silence of Mr. Hill, Chairman Thacher and Major Hinkley on the subject made it impossible to find out certainly whether er not the conference would take place.

Mr. Brewster is authority for the statement that there is talk about Mr. Cleveland making a platform speech while he is in this city en route from Gray Gables to Washington.

is in this city en route from Gray Gables to Washington.

Mr. Brewster said he was convinced that the President would take the opportunity of declaring himself in favor of the State ticket. This statement, made almost immediately after Mr. Brewster's conversation with Senator Hill this forenoon, lends color to the report that the President is coming out flatfooted in favor of the State ticket.

County Clerk Purroy and ex-Police Commissioner Bell, of Brooklyn, were summoned by telephone to attend the conference at Democratic State head quarters later in the day. When they arrived Senator Hill was then closeted with Hugh J. Grant, Police Commissioners Martin and Sheehan and Major Hinkley.

indications are that they will make the Government in order to further the fur fly in a fashion that has not been progress of the war were passed unanid since some of the early sesions of the investigation.

Although the Chairman and his chief adviser and counsellor, Mr. Goff, are not doing any talking, they have been "sawing wood" in the most industrious fashion for the last few weeks, and unless appearances are very deceitful, they are in a position to make a big stir in the wigwam by getting into the very innards of the Police Department. This is what everybody has been look-ing for ever since the Senate Commit-

This is what everybody has been looking for ever since the Senate Committee resumed its work this Fall, and though Mr. Goff and his assistants have t gone on piling up evidence of the corrupt practices of the Police Department, a and shown in the clearest possible light the petty thievery as well as the infamous oppression of which subordinate to officers of the force have been guilty, there has been a feeling of disappointment that nothing has yet been brought out to show in whose pockets all the wholesale system of blackmail practised by the Department ultimately lodged.
It is believed now that some clue to this mystery, which in the minds of a good many intelligent citisens is no mystery at all, is to be brought out by the testimony of some of the officers who have been recently "broken" by the Commissioners and compelled to suffer as scapegoats for the misdoings of their superiors.
In other words, it is said that they have become disgusted at the manner in which they have been treated and have resolved to remain silent no longer in order to protect and shield the real wrong-doers in their high and exalted positions, but to tell Mr. Goff and the Lexow Committee all they know about the inner workings of the blackmailing system of which the helpless victims have been giving so much damning testimony
A further inducement for those dis-ave been giving so much damning estimony. A further inducement for those discraced officers to come forward and take a clean breast of the whole thing is the fact that indictments have been ound against them, conviction under which would surely send them to Bing ling for a long term of years, and if y making a full confession they can accept such a fate, it is believed that hey will not healtase to accept the elternative.

they will not heattate to accept the siternative.

In fact, it looks as if matters had worked so well for the promoters of the investigation that all they have had to do was to wait for events to bring them just the evidence that they most desired. If this theory is correct, the activity shown by the Police Commissioners in bringing charges against accused captains, sergeants and ward men, hurrying through their trials and dismissing the investigators off the scent and strengthening their own position, has actually opened the way for getting at the secrets of the ring, which has for so many years been profiting by its dishonest practices.

many years been profiting by its dishoutest practices.

One of the dismissed captains, who is said to be willing to testify as a witness before the Committee, is Capt. Doherty, who as a special protege in the past of Commissioner Martin is greatly enraged that he should have been selected as one of the first to suffer for carrying out the instructions of his superior.

Capt. Schmittberger is also mentioned as a probable witness, because since the testimony of Mr. Forget, of the French testimony of Mr. Forget, of the Fre testimony of Mr. Forget, of the French steamship line, he has seen no way of saving his scalp except by shifting the responsibility for his acts upon others higher up in the Department.

If the testimony of such officials as those can be secured, Mr. Goff and the Committee feel confident that the probing operations which they have been carrying on against such tremendous odds will not only be rendered much easier, but will also be productive of much more important results.

This is why the session which will be held to-morrow, and other hearings sat down for the present week, are looked forward to with such great interest by the public, and such anxiety by the authorities of the Police Department.

McCarthy Receives Money Sub scribed for Ireland's Cause

(By Associated Press.)
DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—The Freeman' Journal announces that the sums of money subscribed for the Irish cause, generally known as the Paris funds are now in the hands of Mr. Justin McCarthy, Chairman of the Irish Parlis

The following statement was recently made by the correspondent of an English newspaper at Paris in regard to the Irish funds:

"The judgment of the French courts, under which the Irish funds in Paris, amounting to $40,000, will be released and handed over to Mr. Justin McCarthy, M. P. is likely, according to the opinand handed over to Mr. Justin McCarthy, M. P., is likely, according to the opinions expressed by several Irish members, to give a stimulus to Irish agitation during the forthcoming Autumn months. The funds could not have been released but for the compromise arrived at between the two wings of the Irish party, and it is an open secret that out of the 140,000 the sum of fi0,000 will be handed over to Mr. John Redmond and deposited in the now empty exchequer of the Parnellite party.

"It would be a mistake to assume however, that the whole of the fi0,000 can be applied to the propagation of Parnellite principles in Ireland. Before and for some time after the death of Mr. Parnell debts to a considerable amount had to be incurred, and one of the terms of the compromise is that these debts are to be discharged.

"The Parnellite members are more than pleased that this burden is to be removed from their shoulders. They believe that a balance will remain with which they intend to oegin an active Autumn campaign, and they believe that should more funds be required, the discharge of old debts will sufficiently revive their credit to enable them to carry on the agitation until the dissolution comes. The most sanguine of the Parnellite members hope, in the event of a compromise not being arrived at with regard to their measure of representation, that they will more than double their present strength.

"The McCarthylies are pledged to devote the 130,000 remaining of the fund to the relief of the evicted tenants, and Mr. John Redmond is the self-appointed champion of their cause."
